

2025 MHHA Annual Conference – Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

1. What continuing education (CE) credits are available at the conference?

Nursing Contact Hours: Michigan HomeCare & Hospice Association is approved as a provider of nursing continuing professional development by Pennsylvania State Nurses Association, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

Social Work CEs: Approved by the Michigan Social Work Continuing Education Collaborative (Approval #022825-00). Sessions eligible for SW CEs are noted on the agenda.

2. How do I earn CE credit at the conference?

To earn credit, you must:

Obtain CE labels are in your packets that you picked up at the registration table
Sign in within the first 15 minutes of the session using the appropriate sheet (White for Nursing, Pink for Social Work).
Place your label and signature on the sign-in sheet.
Sign out at the end of the session using a second label and the designated sign-out sheet.
Complete the session evaluation via the QR code provided.

Note: No credit will be awarded if any step is missed.

3. Are there any disclosures for CE sessions?

Yes. Two pain management speakers, Caren McHenry Martin and Pooja Joshi, are affiliated with Enclara. Any potential conflicts have been mitigated.

4. What should I know about the exhibit hall and raffle?

Visit all vendor booths to learn about products and services. Participate in the “duck hunt” raffle by counting hidden ducks and submitting your guess (with your name) on the index card (found in your registration packet) in the wrapped box by noon on Wednesday, May 7. Closest Guests without going over. Prizes awarded at the Awards Luncheon.

5. Do I need to wear a name badge?

Yes, name badges must be worn at all times. They confirm your registration and help staff assist you.

6. What if there's a room change for a session?

Room assignments may change. Check posted signage or ask a staff member for help.

7. What is the recommended dress code?

Casual attire is recommended. Bring a sweater or jacket due to variable room temperatures.

8. Are tickets required for meals or events?

Yes. Tickets are included in your registration packet and must be presented at applicable functions. Contact the registration desk if any are missing or incorrect.

9. What are the parking options and rates?

Day Parking: $6 per exit with a validation sticker provided by MHHA.

Overnight Parking: $6/night added to your hotel bill. Use your room key for garage access.

Garage Entrance: 198 North Rose Street

10. Who is organizing the event?

MHHA Staff: Laura Haynes (President & CEO), Cindy Thelen (Director of Membership Services)

Education Committee: Deb Holman (Chair), Kerri Allen, Stacey Knierim-Clark, Brittney Crum.

11. Can I help plan future conferences?

Yes! Let a member of the MHHA Education Committee or staff know you're interested.