

2026 MHHA Annual Conference – Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

1. What continuing education (CE) credits are available at the conference?

Nursing Contact Hours: Michigan HomeCare & Hospice Association is approved as a provider of nursing continuing professional development by Pennsylvania State Nurses Association, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

Social Work CEs: Approved by the Michigan Social Work Continuing Education Collaborative (Approval # 20260520-CA-MHAA). Sessions eligible for SW CEs are noted on the agenda.

2. How do I earn CE credit at the conference?

To earn credit, you must:

Obtain CE labels are in your packets that you picked up at the registration table

Sign in within the first 15 minutes of the session using the appropriate sheet (White for Nursing, Pink for Social Work).

Place your label and signature on the sign-in sheet.

Sign out at the end of the session using a second label and the designated sign-out sheet.

Complete the session evaluation via the QR code provided.

Note: No credit will be awarded if any step is missed.

3. Are there any disclosures for CE sessions?

Yes. One pain management speaker, Caren McHenry Martin, are affiliated with DragonFly. Any potential conflicts have been mitigated.

4. What should I know about the exhibit hall and raffle?

Visit all vendor booths to learn about products and services. Participate in the “scrabble game” by collecting letter tiles from Exhibitors and making as many words as you can using the letters only once. Put your name and your words on the large index card found in your packet. Total up your points from your words (maximum of 10 words so use your highest point words). Put completed Index card in the wrapped box by noon on Thursday, May 21st. Prizes awarded to people with the highest points at the Awards Luncheon.

5. What is the Silent Auction?

The Silent Auction is located inside the exhibit hall. Bid on many baskets and various items donated by members, staff and exhibitors. Proceeds from the auction are going to help fund our Annual Conference Scholarship opportunities.

6. Do I need to wear a name badge?

Yes, name badges must be worn at all times. They confirm your registration and help staff assist you.

7. What if there's a room change for a session?

Room assignments may change. Check posted signage or ask a staff member for help.

8. What is the recommended dress code?

Casual attire is recommended. Bring a sweater or jacket due to variable room temperatures.

9. Are tickets required for meals or events?

Yes. Tickets are included in your registration packet and must be presented at applicable functions. Contact the registration desk if any are missing or incorrect.

10. What are the parking options and rates?

Parking is complimentary at the resort!

11. Who is organizing the event?

MHHA Staff: Laura Haynes (President & CEO), Cindy Thelen (Director of Membership Services)

Education Committee: Deb Holman (Chair), Kerri Allen, Stacey Knierim-Clark, Brittney Crum.

12. Can I help plan future conferences?

Yes! Let a member of the MHHA Education Committee or staff know you're interested.